Catching Up

We hope you had a wonderful Thanksgiving with loved ones this past month! Lucas and I were blessed to be able to spend it with all of Lucas' siblings, their spouses and children, and even his parents! It was a wonderful time getting to spend with each of them. As for the months before, Lucas, Maria, and I have been traveling nonstop. We visited two local churches in September, one in both Iowa and Nebraska in October, one in Arizona where they were holding a missions conference, and one up in the mountains of Colorado as well! It has been such a huge encouragement to both Lucas and I visiting these churches and spending so much time with believers from different places. We have been able to see God's provision and guidance in incredible ways and have also witnessed so much generosity, hospitality, and love through His people. At the moment we are at around 30% of our monthly budget and are so grateful for all of the prayer and financial support we have received. We have also greatly enjoyed watching Maria grow and change every day. She's about four and a half months now, loves to roll around, and would love to know what is in our coffee cups each morning. She is so sweet and cute and just such a blessing to have with us. Thankfully too, she seems to be enjoying her trips in the car seat just a tiny bit more lately! On the weeks that we don't travel Lucas has also been helping at the youth center in Simla called Crossroads Youth Works. Crossroads played a huge roll in my spiritual walk growing up, so it's cool to see Lucas now be a part of it.

What's Next

For the month of December we are planning to take a little bit of a rest from the car. Both of my sisters who live far will be visiting this month, so we will plan to spend time with family and friends before planning more church visits and preparing for our move. We will need to visit Dallas to get Maria's Peruvian birth certificate and passport, but are still waiting for an appointment day, hopefully in January. There are four more churches that we currently need to schedule and visit to speak at as well!

Thank you again, so much for your prayers and support! We hope you have had a wonderful 2025 and wish you a very Merry Christmas focused on the birth of Jesus! Please feel free to reach out if you have any more questions or if you would like to know more. If you would like to give financially, you can visit our Tentmakers Bible Mission page under the Palmeras Project.

Please be Praying

- for safety on the road as we continue our traveling in January
- that Maria's Peruvian paperwork processes quickly after the appointment
- for my mom's health—she was recently diagnosed with stage 4 breast cancer
- that we would be faithful and Godly parents to Maria
- that we would continue to trust God to provide as we raise support
- that God would be preparing Lucas, Maria, and me as we get ready to move
